

Geneva NGO FORUM - Beijing+20 UN ECE Regional Review

3-5 November, 2014

Palais des Nations - Geneva, Switzerland

act | advance | achieve | women's rights

Special INVITATION

Civil Society Actors, Woman's Rights Advocates, Grass-roots Women's Groups and Networks,
UN Agencies, Academic Institutions, Media, Private Sector Actors & other stakeholders from the 56 countries of the UN ECE* region

act

Be an active participant in a dynamic global process and contribute to discussions on achievements, gaps and challenges in the implementation of the 12 critical areas of concern of the 1995 Beijing Platform for Action (BPfA). Tackle together other burning emerging & cross-cutting issues such as the impact on women of globalization, rising inequalities, ageing, ICTs, Science and technology for women, climate change, increasing migration, trafficking and violence against women, among others.

advance

Accelerate change by networking and developing new partnerships with other women's rights groups. Broaden your knowledge about how to better influence international policy affecting women and advance the development of your own strategic objectives.

achieve

Make recommendations and provide critical input to the NGO outcome document that will be presented to the governmental UNECE regional review meeting, as well as to the Post-2015 Development Agenda.

women's rights

Look to the future. Women's rights are Human Rights and Geneva is the global center of Human Rights. Participate in shaping the future global agenda promoting women's rights.

for information and registration:

<http://beijing20.ngocsw-geneva.ch>

contact: beijing20forum@ngocsw-geneva.ch

We are counting on YOU!

* The UN Economic Commission for Europe (ECE) covers North America, Europe & Central Asia (see www.unece.org for the list of countries)